A screenshot of the Esri sign-in interface. At the top, it says 'Sign in with' followed by the Esri logo. Below this is a section for 'ArcGIS login' with fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a 'Keep me signed in' checkbox, and 'Sign In' and 'Cancel' buttons. There are links for 'Forgot username?' and 'Forgot password?'. At the bottom, there's a field for 'Your ArcGIS organization's URL' and social media icons for GitHub, Facebook, Google, and Apple. A 'Privacy' link is at the bottom right.A screenshot of the 'Save Map' form. It has fields for 'Title:', 'Tags:' (with a placeholder 'Add tags'), 'Summary:' (with a placeholder 'Description of the map.'), and 'Save in folder:' (with a dropdown menu showing 'geo4tn_tga'). At the bottom are 'SAVE MAP' and 'CANCEL' buttons.

Now it is time for you to evaluate the position of Ovitrip locations between 2019 and 2020.

- Did locations change? [using different symbols should make this easier to answer]
- Did changing Ovitrap locations from 2019 to 2020 provide for better coverage? [select/deselect buffered layers as needed]
- What advice do you have for 2021 cohort members regarding the location of ovitraps? [locations, buffers, and changing the basemap can help answer this question]
